go. I let her go, go, go.

Dance formation:

Girls take a partner and form a single ring (with at least an arm-length between them). Then turn and face their partners. One person will be facing clockwise, the other counter-clockwise.

Tempo: Trinidad is a very hot country, so the dance should be taken leisurely. Encourage hip swaying.

- A. Partners dance up to each other, and clap each other's hands on "Go, Go".
- B. Then turn around and do the same to person behind.
- C. They turn to face their partner and do the same but linger on the word "Go".
- D. Each person moves to the next partner passing their partner by the right shoulder. Those going clockwise will continue to face clockwise, and those face counter-clockwise will remain counter-clockwise.

Make sure the ring remains big and there is space between pairs.
