1. Ri - vers that spar - kle and rush a - long free,
2. Pi - o - neers suf - fered to set - tle this land; The
3. All kinds of peo - ple from far a - way lands, 4. Miles of high - way are ours to ex - plore. An

For - ests so tall and green. Dressed in her New World was its name. Fair - ness and Blend - ed in - to one. Cus - toms and ev - er chang - ing view. Four dif - f'rent fin - er - y Ca - na - da fair, None are as free - dom they want - ed for all. Let's live up cul - tures they're will - ing to share. As true Ca - sea - sons we know and en - joy, "Whe ther we luck - y as we. Ah - Walk a - round, look a - round, to what they claim.

na - di - ans.
be rich or poor."

Take the time to say, How luck - y I am that I live in this land of Ca - na - da to - day.

Alternate wording verse 4 - "Each one bright and new".
