

Join Guiding - it's all about... Laughter

You don't need to have a daughter in Guiding to join!

In Guiding, we're about helping girls grow into confident, self-respecting, contributing members of their communities. You don't need to have been in Guiding as a girl, and you don't need to know a girl in Guiding to join us - and you can join us any time. Adult women of all ages are welcome! We offer training in leadership, program development and planning, and more. So don't wait another minute to have a lot of fun, join a wide circle of Guiding friends and make a real difference in the life of a girl. Join today!
