Awards

BC Program Committee
March 2009

Girl awards are the responsibility of the program committee. Any questions regarding girl awards can be directed to your Area Program Adviser or the BC Program Committee at program@bc-girlguides.org

Guides

* Lady Baden Powell Challenge

Presented by the Unit Guider in the girls third year. There is a booklet that can be printed and given to the girls who choose to work on this challenge available on the National website. A certificate is also available on the National website that you can complete and print off.

Pathfinders

Citizenship Certificate

Upon completion of the requirements, Guider can order the certificate via e-commerce. This is one requirement for earning the Canada Cord.

Community Service Award

Girls must complete a total of 15 hours of community service projects (see program book for more details). Upon completion the Unit Guider will present her with her pin. This is one requirement for earning the Canada Cord.

* Canada Cord

Awarded in the girls third year by the Unit Guider with the support of her District. This should be done at a special time/place i.e. Advancement Ceremony. Canada Cord certificates are processed through the Area Awards Committee/Area Program Committee and are usually presented at an Area Recognition Ceremony.

Upon receiving her certificate she may present it to her school counsellor to obtain 2 high school credits.

Rangers

* Bronze Chief Commissioner's Award

Upon the completion of 9 challenges from all four of the program areas, usually in the first year, the Unit Guider presents this award. Certificates can also be ordered via e-commerce to go with the award.

* Silver Chief Commissioner's Award

Upon the completion of an additional 9 challenges from all four of the program areas and the Bronze Award, usually in the second year, this is awarded by the Unit Guider, certificates can also be ordered via e-commerce to go with the award.

* Gold Chief Commissioner's Award

Awarded on completion of additional challenges from each of the four program areas; the Bronze and Silver Awards; the Ranger Service Project; and the Cookie Campaign Challenge.

This award (pin on ribbon) is typically presented at the District level by the Unit Guider in the Girls third year.

The certificate is usually presented at an Area Recognition Ceremony and you should check the process with your Area Awards/Area Program Adviser for further clarification of your Area's process.

Upon receiving her certificate she may present it to her school counsellor to obtain 2 high school credits.
