

WILDERNESS FIRST AID TRAINING MARCH 30 – APRIL 1, 2012

Who	Guiders with an interest in pursuing adventure camping within Guiding. This Wilderness First Aid course will be facilitated by a certified wilderness first aid instructor, and builds on Standard First aid by including prolonged casualty care, casualty transport and backcountry improvisations. Maximum number of participants is 12. This training is subsidized by BC Council, coordinated by the BC Camping Committee.
Pre-requisite	OAL Path & OAL Trail or equivalent experience and Standard First Aid taken within the past 5 years.
Location	Camp McLanlin, Abbotsford, BC
Date	March 30 – April 1, 2012
Cost	$100 per participant—cheques payable to: GGC, BC Council. Cost includes course, reference materials, accommodation and meals (Friday evening snack to Sunday lunch inclusive). Registration fee is non-refundable after January 30, 2012.
Application deadline	January 15, 2012

Send your completed application & fee to:

Girl Guides of Canada – BC Council
Attention – Wilderness First Aid Training
1476 West 8th Avenue
Vancouver, BC V6H 1E1

- Application
 $100 fee * a receipt for the fee will be distributed after the training

If you have any questions regarding this training, please contact Karen Bourdin at karen_bourdin@telus.net

Note, all follow-up correspondence for this event will be completed via email. Please check your inbox regularly.*

Name _____ iMIS # _____

Area _____ District _____

Unit _____ Position _____

E-mail _____ Telephone (eve) _____

Current level of OAL Path Trail Blaze

Current level of First Aid _____ Expiry date (dd/mm/yy) _____

List any serious food allergies, those which cause serious medical reactions or dietary restrictions (e.g. gluten-free, vegetarian) _____

Applicant signature

Date

Retain a copy of this application for your records